

You had a high impact exposure to COVID-19. You are asked to quarantined for 14 days. You live alone and have a dog. This is day 3 and you are starting to cough but still feel fine. What do you do when your dog needs to walk?

